INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT DISCLOSURE

Roehl Transport Inc./Roehl Refrigerated, Inc. ("Company") will order an "investigative consumer report" concerning you for employment purposes or, if you are an owner-operator (independent contractor), for the legitimate business purpose of evaluating your suitability for an independent contractor engagement pursuant to your written instructions.

An "investigative consumer report" is defined as "a consumer report or portion thereof in which information on a consumer's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, or associates of the consumer reported on or with others with whom he is acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning any such items of information."

The investigative consumer report the Company will order concerning you will contain information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living, obtained through personal interviews.

You have the right to request the additional disclosures provided for under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681d(b), which reads as follows:

Any person who procures or causes to be prepared an investigative consumer report on any consumer shall, upon written request made by the consumer within a reasonable period of time after the receipt by him of the disclosure required by subsection (a)(1) of this section, make a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation requested. This disclosure shall be made in a writing mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the consumer not later than five days after the date on which the request for such disclosure was received from the consumer or such report was first requested, whichever is the later.

At present, the specific "nature and scope" of the investigative consumer report the Company may request is as follows: Employment Verifications, Motor Vehicle Reports, CDLIS, Criminal Records, and PSP. The report(s) will be requested from the following:
