- Enter the security code that was provided and select “Remember my device” or “Don’t remember my device” based upon your preference. Click “Next.”

Enter your security code to continue.

Your one-time security code was sent to --8813.
Enter the six digits to continue.

- Remember my device. This way next time I log in from this device I won't have to enter a security code.
- Don't remember my device. It's a public device or I don't use it regularly, so I'll need a security code next time I log in from this device.
